Dear valued Dutch Apple customer,

We hope this email finds you well and staying safe. Throughout this entire year, our main priority has been how to stay open with the safety of our guests and employees at the forefront.

It is with terrible regret to inform you that with the new restrictions on restaurants and theatres issued by Governor Wolf last week, we will be suspending our performance of Elf the Musical. We will also proceed with cancelling Always a Bridesmaid and will be reopening with Happy Days in February.

Our box office will remain open with reduced hours, please contact us at 717-898-1900 or email tickets@dutchapple.com. Reservations for shows can be booked 24/7 at DutchApple.com.

To receive the latest information, check our website, follow along through our social media and watch for additional email communications.

We are looking forward to reopening and entertaining you again. As always, we thank you for your support, patience and understanding during this very difficult time.

Looking forward to our 2021 season!

David Prather, President
Dutch Apple Dinner Theatre
